Learning about Laney: Preview Visitation of Emory University, Laney Graduate School

JOIN US FOR A PREVIEW VISITATION AT ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP UNIVERSITIES!

The Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Community Engagement and the Laney EDGE (Emory Diversifying Graduate Education) Initiative of James T. Laney School of Graduate Studies (LGS) at Emory University is excited to invite you to apply to the 6th Learning about Laney: Preview Visitation of Emory University, Laney Graduate School on Monday, October 7, 2024. This fully-funded visit is designed to familiarize potential LGS scholars, like you, with our faculty, our staff, and current scholars while providing insight into the life of an LGS scholar. You will receive round-trip travel to Emory, lodging, and an application fee waiver for the Laney Graduate School.

You will arrive in Atlanta, GA on Sunday, October 6, 2024, and the visit will convene with an evening welcome activity to include bowling and other fun games! Monday, October 7, 2024, will be a full-day in-person campus visit. You will depart on Tuesday, October 8, 2024.

GETTING A COMPETITIVE EDGE WITH LANEY EDGE

Purpose:

Attend Emory-specific graduate admissions workshops and have conversations with world-renowned faculty and their graduate students. You will also receive advice on submitting a graduate school application that will give you a competitive edge and learn about the professional and personal development opportunities at Emory and in the city of Atlanta.

Eligibility:

All applicants must graduate no later than Summer 2025 and anticipate enrollment in graduate school in Fall 2025. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, permanent residents, or undocumented scholars planning to apply for graduate study for the following fall (start date of Fall 2025). Learning about Laney is designed to provide scholars, from historically underrepresented groups based on their racial and ethnic identities, with an intimate opportunity to learn more about our doctoral programs.
