Learning about Laney: Preview Visitation at Emory University, Laney Graduate School

Considering Graduate School? Think Emory. Think Laney.

Explore Your Future at Laney Graduate School!

We invite you to apply for the fully funded 8th Annual Learning about Laney: Preview Visitation at Emory University, Laney Graduate School— a unique opportunity to experience the academic and community life of the James T. Laney School of Graduate Studies. With more than 45 graduate programs spanning a wide range of disciplines, Laney fosters rigorous academic training, intellectual exploration, interdisciplinary collaboration, and meaningful scholarly engagement. You can explore the full list of graduate programs here.

Hosted by the Office of Advancing Excellence through Recruitment & Opportunities (AERO), this curated visit connects prospective scholars with our faculty, staff, and current scholars, offering an authentic glimpse into graduate life at one of the nation's top research institutions.

What's Included in Your Visit

Selected participants will receive a fully funded experience that includes:

- Round-trip travel to Atlanta, GA, arriving on Sunday, Oct 4, 2026

- Hotel accommodations for two nights

- Welcome social event with bowling, games, and networking on Sunday evening

- Full day of workshops, program visits, and community exploration on Monday, Oct 5, 2026

- Departure on Tuesday, Oct 6, 2026, following your immersive visit

Meals will be provided during the Sunday evening welcome event and throughout Monday's programming. All participants will also receive a Laney Graduate School application fee waiver.

GAIN A COMPETITIVE EDGE WITH LANEY AERO

Learning about Laney is more than a campus visit—it is a glimpse into the full graduate experience. During the program, you'll:

- Attend workshops on crafting strong graduate applications, identifying funding opportunities, and accessing professional development resources
- Connect with faculty, staff, and current graduate scholars from across disciplines
- Explore student life at Emory, including wellness resources, housing, and academic support
- Engage in conversations about inclusion, community, and building a sense of belonging in graduate school
- Experience Atlanta, a vibrant city known for innovation, culture, and community

Eligibility:

Applicants must:

- Plan to graduate no later than Summer 2027
- Intend to enroll in graduate school by Fall 2027
- Be currently enrolled at, or have graduated from, a U.S.-based institution of higher education and currently reside in the U.S. Applicants are eligible regardless of citizenship or immigration status.

Learning about Laney is designed to be welcome scholars from a broad range of backgrounds, identities, perspectives, and experiences by providing an intimate opportunity to learn more about our graduate programs, academic community, and resources for graduate student success.
